TERMS & POLICIES

Liability

The user of our services acknowledges both an understanding of and an assumption of the risks involved in these activities. By continuing this booking, the user expressly releases us of all and any liability for losses of any kind, including physical injury or lost property.

It is essential to arrange a comprehensive personal and baggage travel insurance in advance to cover any eventuality, including charges arising should you have to cancel your holiday plans. Please check your CLIENT or your own insurance company about this. "MAGIA II" excludes liability for matters such as baggage loss or damage, expense or inconvenience caused by delayed or cancelled transportation service, change of schedule, strikes or other conditions beyond "MAGIA II" control.

While we wish to provide a safe and enjoyable trip for all our guests, there are normally inherent risks in boating (cruising), sailing, swimming, snorkelling, diving and other activities with us. Participants are advised to arrange their own insurance prior to their stay with us. We will not be responsible for damage or losses of any kind, including injuries and lost property. By engaging our services, participants acknowledge and accept these risks

INSURANCE

The vessel carries 2 separate insurance policies

1. Hull & Machinery Insurance, which covers the vessel itself in the event of damage or loss ;
2. Protection & Indemnity Insurance (P&I), which is a third-party insurance and covers passengers and crew during the time they are aboard the vessel. Please note that the P&I Insurance does not cover you outside of the vessel, e.g. due to any swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, water-skiing, surfing, kayaking or similar sports, whether supplied by the yacht owner, charterer, or any third party. We highly recommend that all guests have adequate travel insurance prior to traveling. Coverage varies depending on the provider. Should you or any of your party want to dive it is highly recommended that you are covered under your travel insurance or by your own personal scuba diving insurance of choice.
